

Join ULLRs on April 24, 2016, for the Sunday 2:00 matinee.

Schneider Theatre, Bloomington Center for the Arts

98th & Logan Ave. S., Bloomington, MN 55431, 952-563-8575

Set in Imperial Russia in 1905, filled with laughter and tenderness, this heartwarming story and musical theater classic centers around the father of five daughters and his attempts to maintain his religious and cultural traditions.

TONY AWARD WINNER

Send payment of $32 per ticket to Karen Gray at 13216 Pine Ridge Rd, Burnsville, MN 55337. Because this is such a popular musical, seating is already limited so reserve your seat today. Questions? Call Karen at 952-895-8960. Tickets are exchangeable but not refundable.

Vicki Johnson is planning a place for us to dine out, location to be determined, following the performance. She has a special interest in this performance since her niece has a starring role in Fiddler. Let Karen know if you would like to be included in the reservation.
