

Celebrate Oktoberfest in New Ulm

Hikers and Non-Hikers Welcome
October 8, 2022

Hikers meet at Flandrau State Park
1300 Summit Ave, New Ulm MN
10:45 meet 11:00 Hike
($7 park fee or State Park Pass required)

The Cottonwood River State River Trail meanders throughout this southern park. The terrain is diverse, offering views of wooded river bottoms, oxbow marshes and open grasslands. Hikers and cross-country skiers enjoy the flat trails on the bottom of the valley or more challenging routes on the oak-shaded bluffs. Several buildings in the park are beautiful examples of the architectural work done by the WPA. During part of the 1940s, the camp was used as a World War II German prisoner-of-war camp.

Non-Hiker Activities

New Ulm's Oktoberfest celebration kicks off with a 11:00 am parade starting at the Glockenspiel (4th N St and MN St) and ending at Center St where Music and German inspired food and treats will be served alongside Schell's Brewery Beer, Morgan Creek Wine and 1919 Root beer. Hikers will plan to join you at Center between 1:00 and 1:30 pm for music and libations.
