

“Moments to Remember-I” – presented by Mike Henry

Memories are a wonderful thing, and one of the best ways to trigger some profound memories from our youth is through clips of the actual hit records we grew up with. In “Moments to Remember-I,” Mike—who was a radio DJ while in college (1964-68)—comes to the ULLR Ski, Bike and Social Club meeting at the Bloomington Event Center to take us back to the birth of rock and roll in the mid-1950s.

We’ll reminisce about growing up in the 1950s and early 60s with clips from over 100 of the biggest hits from the artists who shaped early rock, including Bill Haley, Elvis, Buddy Holly, Bobby Vee, the Platters, Ricky Nelson, Danny and the Juniors, Roy Orbison, and many more. In addition to the record clips, Mike shares pictures and stories about some of the artists and songs, including segments on pioneer radio DJs and the influence of music on our early romances. Renew some wonderful memories of events in your life all those years ago.
