

Visit the Minnesota Historical Society Center

Wednesday, April 3 Begin at 10:30 AM

345 W. Kellogg Blvd., St. Paul 55102

I had a wonderful day in January visiting the Minnesota History Center. The only thing that would have made it better would have been to have a friend nearby to share the exhibits with. I hope some Ullrs might join me to visit the current exhibits.

Then Now Wow

Our Home: Native Minnesota

Reframing Our Stories

Weather Permitting

Grainland

The Life & Art of Charles M. Schultz

The Greatest Generation

Black Citizenship in the Age of Jim Crow

I will give a brief introduction to the History Center, then you can go visit the exhibits of your choice. We can buy a lunch at the center's cafeteria, meeting there around 12:15 PM.

Cost: Seniors 65+: $10, Under 65: $12. Tickets may be purchased there or on-line at mnhs.org MHS members: free.

When arriving, everyone will get a wristband to prove payment.

Parking: $6.00 per car in the adjacent parking lot.

You may also choose to shop in the gift store.

RSVP to Margie Deutsch with any questions and so she knows how many will be coming. 763-498-9366 [c] 763-545-5845 home mandmdeutsch@gmail.com

[MNHS members, remember you get a small discount on parking, in the cafeteria and in the gift shop, as well as at events and at the other 25 MNHS historic sites.]