

Let's Check Out Some Local Highlights: We have so much to see indoors.

The Minnesota History Center

Join me Friday, February 7 about 10 AM

Depending on the weather, we can walk to Micky's Diner or eat at the History Museum for lunch.

The Minnesota History Center has a regular series of exhibits. However, it also shows special, often highly rated, travelling exhibits.

Girlhood \(It's complicated\) thru June 1, 2025

Explore the ever-evolving experience of girlhood in the US with over 100 objects from the Smithsonian collection, interactive displays, archive photographs, and more. And don't forget to check out the section on girls' basketball in Minnesota, developed by the Minnesota Historical Society, digging deeper into the importance of participation, encouragement, and support for women both on and off the court.

The US-Dakota War of 1862:

It has been over 150 years since the U.S.-Dakota War of 1862, a disastrous time in Minnesota history. The war had a profound impact in shaping Minnesota as we know it today. This site is a resource for learning about the war, its causes, and its far-reaching consequences.

Plus, so much more

RSVP to Kate Casserly, 763-238-6029 or email, casserly1@gmail.com or if you have any questions. It's $12 for a senior admission plus $6 per car parking. No advance registration required.