ULLR Spring Banquet 2010

Lovely piano music by Bill Kansas and Joyce Crozier filled the room as eighty-eight ULLRs socialized before dinner at the Minnesota Valley Country Club, April 24 — our 60th annual Awards Banquet!

Our MC, Bill Kansas, kept the program moving. He presented cherished collectible wine glasses to specific individuals that he thought deserved them for service given to the club. He brought forth many memories that have been etched in our brains over the years. Brian Johnson presented the ski awards, highlighted by Mary Parcheta's national awards. The Foundation Board was recognized for their outstanding work. Ole awards presented were: "Spinning Spokes" to John Steifel, "Jumping Jimmy" to Jim Habeck, "Ms. Congeniality" to Sharon Marini, "Our Sparkling Gem" to Karen Clarke and "Gutzy Prez" to Diane Erlandson.

Chairs: Dick & Lolly D, MC: Bill Kansas

Carol and Joan

The ULLR of the Year Award came as a surprise to Carol Burgess as she was honored for her many contributions to our club. The current board was recognized and the new board, beginning with President Bruce Warner, was introduced. The American Flyer Band, as usual, provided great beats and uplifting music. ULLRs "danced the night away" and about a dozen, plus Dick and I, warmed the dance floor until the band stopped playing!

We had a ton of fun and if the emails and the notes sent to us are any indication, so did everyone else!
Lolly Dahlen

"An OLE for Jumpin' Jimmy"

There is a certain ULLR – who especially deserves an award
This ULLR doesn't sit around – but is always moving forward.
Hiking, biking, or cross-country – he'll always lead a group.
An energetic and dedicated leader – that is the total scoop
An ULLR for the ages – been around for the duration
This ULLR is indispensable – for continual contribution.
Large in every way – the strong and silent type
Going about it diligently – sans clamor and sans hype.
You all know who it is – that, I do suspect
That likeable, steady guy – by the name of Jim Habeck
Here's your "Jumpin' Jimmy" OLE – which you did rightly earn
For all that you have given – here's a token in return.

Ali and Jim

"An OLE for Jumpin' Jimmy", composed by
Ray Hartmann
for Jim Habeck, inadvertently
was not read
at the Awards Banquet.

The Foundation Corner

Guest columnist Nancy Keyes

ULLR Foundation Efforts raised $591 at the April Meeting!!! With the popular, sold-out Twins tickets and other merchandise and gift certificate items raffled at the meeting, the Foundation will continue its mission to help those less able. Through golf card sales and bi-annual fundraisers, your Foundation is able to keep giving to those in need of adaptive equipment, enabling them to live life to their fullest potential!! We've said it before and are saying it again - what a supportive Club we have!!! Thank you!!

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Skis, boots, poles, and snowshoes are put away. Bikes and hiking boots are ready to be used. The social calendar is filling up for the Summer and Fall. Our club is once again transitioning to a new season and a new Board of Directors is transitioning to the responsibility for the well-being of our club. This responsibility is accepted in the context of the excellent work performed by all of the boards that preceded us. Our thanks to all of them for their outstanding leadership and time commitment. Diane Erlandson will continue as Past President Advisor to keep us on track. To ensure continuity, two joint board meetings were held followed by individual meetings between relinquishing board members and assuming board members.

The Spring Banquet was held at the Minnesota Valley Country Club, April 24, hosted by Lolly and Dick Dahlen and with Bill Kansas handling the Master of Ceremonies work. Eighty eight members enjoyed a cocktail, dinner, awards ceremonies, and dancing. Brian Johnson presented several racing awards and summarized a very successful season of racing. Ole awards were presented by Janice Swanberg and the ULLR of the Year award was presented by last years' recipient, Joan Roe, to Carol Burgess. Joan Roe also introduced the new ULLR Foundation Board and Diane Erlandson, in her gracious farewell, introduced the new 2010-2011 ULLR Board. Closing the program, Jim Habeck announced the ULLR-sponsored 2011 Western ski trip to Lake Tahoe, scheduled the first week of February. Remember, check the ULLR web site as it continues to be updated with new events.

It's clear that the strength of our Club rests in the many volunteers that freely give of their time and skills. If I neglect to mention someone please accept my apologies. I welcome input and feedback to me or any of the board members – please share your thoughts, ideas, or concerns.

Your prez, Bruce A. Warner

Recalling Past Events:

*Thank you to ULLR's who hosted an event last month. The Club could not function without creative ideas and members willing to carry out those ideas.
