ULLRS HAVE FUN

-By Karen Gray

On the beautiful Thursday evening of July 10, 2014, twelve ULLRs gathered at the Pazzluna Urban Italian Restaurant for happy hour and then learned disco dancing, followed by open dancing with the Boogie Wonderland Band, at Rice Park in St. Paul.

The dance floor became packed as the evening went on, but there was a whole park laced with empty sidewalks great for dancing. At evening's end we discoed our way back to the Science Museum parking lot.

ULLRs are adventuresome and love to try new things. This Summer Dance Series was sponsored by the Ordway Theatre. On June 19, ULLRs danced to Rhythm & blues music. There was Swing dancing to Rock & Roll music on June 26. Good-for-the-soul salsa music was featured on July 17. The season ended July 24, with ballroom dancing.

Sommerfest at Orchestra Hall — by event chair, Carol Burgess

It was July the 12th and the rains were heavy in the morning and early afternoon but the weather finally cleared and the sun came out for a glorious summer evening. Over thirty-five ULLRs gathered outside Orchestra Hall to enjoy wine, beer and brats from the food truck from Kramarczuk Sausage Company. A combo entertained us and a few danced to lively polkas. Inside, we viewed the remodeled lobby area—brighter and much more spacious. The concert that evening was “A Night in Vienna” and we enjoyed it from wonderful first floor seats. Conducted by Andrew Litton, the music included Strauss waltzes and Chopin’s First Piano Concerto, featuring a very talented Natasha Pareski. After the concert about a dozen Ullrs crossed the Mall to Brit’s for more camaraderie and a late evening snack and beverage. All in all, it was a lovely evening.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT - By Karen Gray

Recent studies tell us that strong social support, purpose in life, moderate exercise and mentally stimulating games are essential for happiness, good mental and physical health, and longevity. Don't we just have it all as ULLRs! This summer we've had What's Cookin' picnics averaging about 90 participants twice per month in June and July and a smaller group that goes golfing before each picnic. Good Ol' Days had over 50 bicyclists pedaling in competition with father time. All of the numerous scheduled bike rides are attracting many biking enthusiasts. Gary Gray's talk and Nancy Sand's follow-up trip to the Science Museum brought together a good crowd of ULLRs interested in dinosaurs. The new Last Thursday social events in various locations are building in popularity. The bridge club usually has 12 players stimulating their brains every 3rd Tuesday with over 30 ULLRs on the list. The singles always have fun groups for game nights, fine dining and movie nights. Carol Burgess sold out all the tickets reserved for Sommerfest. We improved our dancing skills at the Thursday nights at Rice Park in St. Paul. Eileen Ronning sold out all of the tickets reserved for ULLRs for the Frank DiSalvo concert. There were 25 guests at Jim Habeck's folding party, and Nancy Sand led a lively discussion about what to do in place of folding parties, should we decide to continue having the Nullr online only after the three month trial period. The Winter Planning Party was an example of democracy in action with Barb Kolbe acting as the expert facilitator. (Take a look at the new lineup of events!) Behind the scenes, the purpose of the ULLR board is to work cooperatively in an effort to make everything run smoothly. There is something of value in the club for everyone. ULLRs have been busy. At this rate, we will all be forever young.

ULLRs can also be spontaneous. Ellise Lamb suggested to the group at Singles Game Night that she was going to see "Mame" in Minnetonka in two weeks on July 20. She instructed those who wanted to go with her to sign her paper. She offered to get tickets for the performance and make reservations for Ike's Restaurant after the play. She ended up with a group of 13, including two of us who heard about it and joined up with them to see a magnificent performance followed by a lovely dinner. Thanks for organizing it Ellise.

We have many more exciting events still in the planning stages, and we can always use more, so don't be shy. If you have an idea for an event, we will match you up with an expert to help you make it happen.

I love the fact that ULLRs are doers. I'm so happy to be one of you, and I'm proud to be your president.

Lake Minnetonka Cruise -by Sally Chevalier

On Monday, July 14, nine ULLRs rode on, no wake, Lake Minnetonka aboard an Al & Alma boat. I don't recall seeing another boat on that very windy, but dry day. We ate a delicious lunch on the boat as we viewed awesome lake homes. The boat captain told us about the home owners and the house histories. It was a very enjoyable day.

THURSDAY MORNING BIKERS EXPLORE HISTORIC NEIGHBORHOOD

By- Patty Fitzgerald

July 10th was a perfect biking day and John Stiefel took the group of 15 bikers over to Minnehaha Falls to see the raging falls, then we headed north to the University of Minnesota. We wound our way thru the U and over to the Milwaukee Avenue Historic District, located in the Seward neighborhood.

The district comprises two city blocks of small homes on quarter-sized lots. These houses were built between 1884 and 1890 by William Ragan, a Minneapolis real estate speculator. Built for lower income residents, the houses deteriorated towards the end of WWII. The houses were saved from demolition in the 1970s and are now on the National Register of Historic Places. The houses fall under the federal protection and rehabilitation that comes with this designation. Today the houses sit along a bike and pedestrian friendly mall on which motor traffic is prohibited.

The group picture is taken in front of the home of Dale Wood, a life-long resident of the neighborhood (4th from the left). Dale shared his knowledge of the neighborhood with us. Thank you John Stiefel for a great and interesting ride.

"Milwaukee Avenue houses represent a "common man's architecture," which proliferated from copybook plans made popular in the late 19th century." "One of the primary reasons the historic district gained entry to the National Register of Historic Places is its rare concentration of worker's residences of similar style. Most historic districts spotlight residences of the rich and famous—the lumber barons of Minneapolis and railroad tycoons of St. Paul, for instance—and overlook those of immigrant laborers who contributed so much to the growth of urban Minneapolis."

Do you want to see these houses and learn more about them? Join Patty Fitzgerald and John Stiefel on a hike October 6 which includes this neighborhood.

See next month's Nullr or www.ullr.com for more details.

ULLR Bridge

ULLRs met July 15 in Maple Grove at Eileen Ronning's home. As usual there were good, spirited games. The winners were: Carol B; 2nd: Gwen K; 3rd: Karen G. The next ULLR Bridge will be August 19 at noon in St. Paul at the home of Mary Holisak. Please call Eileen Ronning, 763-416-4585, if you can host the December 17th Bridge day.

THE GENERAL MEETINGS

by Mary Ellen Gabel, Executive V.P

We have some new events planned for the ULLR General Meetings this fall and winter. We will start off October 9th with a speaker from Majestic Hills Ranch, which provides healing horseback riding for children, young adults, and veterans. The ULLR Foundation gives donations to the ranch. November 13th we'll have someone from Hoigaards discuss XC and snowshoeing. Instead of a meeting at the KC Hall on January 15, 2015, we'll meet at Nancy Sand's party room for a wine tasting party with assistance from Nancy Keyes. This is still in the planning stages and will probably involve a charge. On February 12, we will have a speaker on "Planning for End of Life" who is said to be informative as well as entertaining. The Foundation will have their Raffle & Bingo on March 12th. At our last spring meeting, April 9th, we will have a speaker from Three Rivers Park District talk to us about trail development and the trails available in the park system for biking & hiking. Hopefully, you will find all of these speakers fun and interesting.

Both the Holiday Ball and the Spring Banquet will be held at the Officer's Club again due to its affordability.

On Friday, December 5, will be the Holiday Ball.

Saturday, April 25, is the Spring Banquet.
