Fall Hikes

“Fall has always been my favorite season. The time when everything bursts with its last beauty, as if nature had been saving up all year for the grand finale.” Lauren DeStefano, “Wither”

Ullrs hiked: at Afton State Park, Coon Rapids Dam, Richard T. Anderson Conservation Area, Wolsfeld Woods, Arboretum, Whitetail Woods Park, Nine Mile Creek, and Fort Snelling. Groups of 8 to 20 enjoyed the clear, crisp air, the exercise, and the company of the other hikers. One hike report said, “A beautiful fall day was perfect for Joella Wilson’s hike through Afton State Park. Ten Ullrs enjoyed a hike down to the river. We tried to spot birds, especially eagles. Climbing out of the river bottom proved to be a cardio workout! We ended the hike with an old fashioned picnic in the park. We decided we should return the middle of October to enjoy the autumn colors!”

Hikers on October 18 on the Fort Snelling Hike led by Carolyn Buswell and John Egan .

May your Hanukkah or Christmas candles shine brightly with hope this season.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Patty Fitzgerald

Hi Fellow Ullrs,

What makes us happy? Is it external circumstances, material things, or our attitude, choices and actions? I think the answer is "yes" to all of those things, but happiness is mostly an inside matter. We can't control external things but we have full control over our own choices and actions which could bring us long lasting happiness. There are studies that show that happiness as we age has much more to do with our attitude than with our actual health. Also, people who spend time each day socializing, reading or participating in other hobbies rate their happiness higher than those who don't. Here are some words of wisdom from numerous sources that I would like to share with you:

1. Be grateful for health, family, friends, home, talents, etc.
2. Count your blessings. Be optimistic about your circumstances.
3. Be social. Keep company with positive, progressive, successful and other happy people.
4. Stay physically active for as long as you can.
5. Commit acts of kindness. Help people-in-need in whatever manner you can.
6. Be forgiving of yourself and others. Nobody is perfect.

My wish for you is a happy and a healthy 2016.

Proposals for 2016-2017

Ah, those lazy, hazy, crazy last days of summer! Pam, Barb, Lorna and Carl take a break on their hike at Afton State Park. Now it is time to put away the walking sticks and get out the ski poles. Minnesota truly is the land of four seasons. (I wonder why people say Minnesota seasons are winter and road construction? Maybe because it is true?)

We are Ullrs

The Club name, ULLR, has traditionally been spelled with all capital letters. As of this issue, the ULLR Board has accepted my suggestion that when referencing club members, the spelling in this and future Nullr issues will be Ullrs. While reading past Nullrs for the "Memory Lane" articles, I found that is the way it was written for the first 50 years.

COME TO THE GENERAL MEETINGS

Date: Thursday, November 12, 2015

Dr. Chad Hendrickson DC will speak about exercises for winter activities.

Date: Thursday, January 21, 2016

Cathy Schutt CTRS, Director of Therapeutic Programs and Volunteers, will tell us about programs helping residents at Walker Methodist Health Center.

Location: Marion Knights of Columbus Hall
1114 American Blvd., Bloomington 55420
See [map in the ULLR directory.]

Times: 6:00 PM Socializing
7:00 PM General Meeting and Program

Details: The KC Hall has a dining opportunity for Ullrs before the meeting. The dining room opens at 5:00 PM. Please contact Kelly at 952-888-1492 to reserve. The costs of the meal and drinks are credited to the club to help defray the cost of the meeting room.

Why advertise the 2016 Summer Bike and Golf Trip to Nisswa now?

The dates, June 13-16, have been reserved at the Good Ol' Days Resort. This summer trip, when folks bike, golf, and socialize, has been so successful that next year it is extended to 4 days of fun. See the flyer on ullr.org The cost is only $175. However, the resort wants the major part of its money in a down payment in November, 2015. Therefore, make your reservation at the Nov. 12 ULLR general meeting.

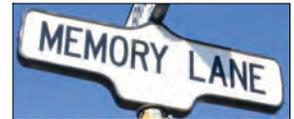

Make check payable to ULLR Club.

Or send to: Carol Bush, 5691 Hyland Courts Dr., Minneapolis, MN 55437. Include emergency contact information.

A Walk down the ULLR Memory Lane as reported in two December Nullrs

by Margie Deutsch

1995: Colleen Barden and Fran DeWell each, separately, co-hosted Holidazzle Parade events. Forty Ullrs for each event dressed in costumes and marched. Afterwards there was a little "afterglow." *Directions to Elm Creek Park for cross country skiing were: "Refer to Hudson's Street Atlas, square 4D on page 4A." Remember maps? (They came before GPS and smart-phone apps.)

1999: Dianna Salmela and Marvin Souba hosted the Holiday Ball at the KC Hall for 158 guests. It included a "White Elephant" gift exchange. *At the December General meeting, members were entertained by the ULLR Singers. (Was this an official ULLR group?) *President Jerry Swanberg marched in the Holidazzle parade as a Christmas tree light bulb. *Year-end ULLR membership was 500+. Lorna Berglund (now Lorna Higgins) was thanked for hosting the fall Mississippi River Cruise. *The New Year's 4-day weekend trip was to Giant's Ridge. The event leaders were Berit and Tom Roberts and Charlotte Navratil. *Many ski trips were advertised including these: Quebec (by Jan Hoffmann), the Dolomites & French Rivera (by Lorri Christenson), and the Canadian Rockies/Banff. Karen Holmquist advertised an evening at the Murder Mystery Café. Suggested attire was "gangster casual." *The Nullr "Back Page" reported that Kathy Potter placed second in her age group in the 5K run before the Twin Cities Marathon.

Kinky Boots Social and Salad Supper

What a party it was! Creativity was extreme. 27 Ullrs laughed at each other, and we laughed at ourselves. There were a variety of salads and all were delicious. A "Kinky Boots" cake was provided by Charlotte and Alan. A guest, Carol Gesh, a one-time member, also attended. What winter event will YOU plan?

A travel note from Margie Deutsch

Are you planning any airplane flight or a visit to Canada or Mexico in 2016? If so, make sure your passport or Enhanced Driver's License (EDL) is current. Minnesota is one of the few states that chose not to allow the REAL ID ACT enacted May 11, 2005. This act required more information for a driver's license. As of 2016, an EDL, a passport or passport card will be required as an acceptable identity document at airport security checkpoints. [Note: An EDL and a passport card are only valid for domestic air travel.] It is not known which date this policy will begin.

Since 2013 the Hennepin County Service Centers no longer take passport applications. Go to <http://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/passports/apply.html> to download and print form DS-82. If you are renewing a passport it must be mailed in with form DS-82, a current 2x2 inch photo, your old passport and $110. If you check the box on the form to also get a Passport card, add $30. [You save the $25 processing fee this way.] I got my photo at Walgreens for $12.99. Send via registered mail.

As my driver's license will expire in December, I decided to get an enhanced driver's license (EDL) which will act like a passport card. What an adventure! An EDL is only available at a driver's license exam station. In the metro area there are 4, in Arden Hills, Eagan, Plymouth, and St. Paul. In total I made five visits. This is what I learned. You need a passport or birth certificate to prove U.S. citizenship and a Social Security card. The name on the birth certificate cannot be different from the current name on the Social Security card. If so, you need a certified copy of your marriage license(s) and divorce certificate(s) to prove the name change(s). They also asked for a current utility bill with my name on it to show my current valid address. Our bills just have my husband's name. As a default, a blank check with my imprinted name was accepted. Only checks or cash are accepted for payment. See more at <https://dps.mn.gov/divisions/dvs/forms-documents/Documents/EDL-EID-Identification-Requirements.pdf>

Ullrs are asked to donate toys. New unwrapped toys can be brought to the November 12 ULLR General Meeting or to the November 21 ULLR Holiday Ball. Or, donate checks or cash. Make checks to "Marine Toys for Tots Foundation." You may send your donation to Nancy Sand, 15001 Burnhaven Drive, Unit #108, Burnsville, MN 55306.

Ullrs are also invited to help December 15 to sort and pack donated toys at the Toys for Tots warehouse. At this time, the location of the warehouse is not known. Watch the ULLR website and your email for more information about this event.

Try It, Mikey, You Might Like It.

By Margie Deutsch

Brian Johnson has invited Ullrs and/or their friends and relatives to be a part of a racing team. ULLR teams race for seven weeks on Sunday afternoon at Wild Mountain and Wednesday afternoon at Buck Hill. Wild Mountain has an opportunity to try out racing. From its web site: "Never been through a race course? This is your opportunity to try! Run through our beginner-friendly race course on Expressway as many times as you like. Check out first-hand why thousands of recreational skiers in Minnesota sign up for adult leagues like Ski Challenge every year! Wednesday Try-Its are Dec. 23, Dec. 30 and Jan. 6th* at 7:00 pm. On Sunday, Try-Its are Dec. 27, Jan. 3 and Jan. 10* at 4:30 pm. *The Jan. 6th and Jan. 10th dates are regular Ski Challenge race days. New racers can ski as "Guest Racers" on these days, and participate in the Ski Challenge race for free." Call Brian, 763-494-4622, for more information on the ULLR racing teams.

Finally there is a sport where the dress code is "relaxed casual." These Arboretum hikers, led by Jim Habeck, enjoyed the warm sunshine on a day that began in the 40's but got up to 63°.

One type of mono-ski. Prices vary greatly, but cost at least $3,000.
