Second Annual Charlie Brown Memorial Bike Ride

This bike ride on Brown's Creek Trail out of Stillwater, on Thursday, August 25, was enjoyed by 25 riders who remembered Charlie Brown. It was a day with perfect weather. Charlie's son, Matt, joined us and Ken M. wore Charlie's favorite bike shirt. Lunch afterwards at the Dock Cafe was delightful. Thanks to everyone. - Joan Roe

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Sharon Marini

Greetings to all. Summer seems to be over with cool nights and warm days. We have had an action packed summer. The bike ride and potluck at Gail and Hal West's home was wonderful. They are great hosts. Thank you both from all of us who attended. It was a beautiful day and ride through the park and neighborhoods in Champlin.

I also want to thank Marilyn B. and Carole T. for co-chairing the Lanesboro trip. You two did a fantastic job. There is a rumor that they will co-chair again next year. Yea! The rain held off and we were able to get our biking in on the beautiful trails. Some Ullrs saw the play Boeing, Boeing. It kept us all awake. So funny. Very talented actors.

We look forward to the many scheduled hikes and other events. By the time that you read this our last What's Cookin' for this year will have taken place. Thank you all for attending and especially those who have hosted and prepared the food. Without the participation of our members, there would be no club. Please read our beautiful Nullr and check the website for up-coming schedules.

Little known facts:

- * More presidents have been born in October than any other month.
- * Germany's Oktoberfest originally began October 17, 1810, the wedding day of King Ludwig I.
- * When birds and badgers are fat in October, expect a cold winter.
- * In 1940, the Pennsylvania Turnpike opened to traffic. It is considered the first U.S superhighway.
- * In 1908, for $825, Ford's Model T was put on the market

On Monday, December 9, put on your calendar the ULLR MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY FOLDING PARTY

Lunch is at noon followed by Directory folding.

Host: Diane Erlandson

All are welcome! A main dish and beverages are provided. More information next month in the Nullr, and it is posted on the ULLR events' page.

Elm Creek Park Ride - Gail & Hal West

After overnight storms and early morning showers, we were blessed with a beautiful day for our August 18th bike ride & potluck. Eighteen ULLR bikers headed out in the morning for either a 15-mile or 22.5-mile ride through scenic Elm Creek Park Preserve. We were joined by 20 more Ullrs for a potluck lunch on Gail & Hal West's patio overlooking the Mississippi River. As usual, we had lots of delicious food, along with pleasant cool breezes and delightful conversation. What a great way to spend the day with great friends! Thanks to everyone for their contributions to a wonderful get-together. [More photos at ullr.org]

Carol T & Marcia S enjoyed the ride.

Lanesboro Bike and Golf Trip, August 25-27

By Carol Thelen

On Sunday, 31 eager Ullrs arrived in Lanesboro ready to bike, golf, take in a play and enjoy fellowship. The weather cooperated by being dry during the days but nature provided us with a beautiful rainbow at the end of one day, after a brief shower, which was captured by Bill Brechtel on his camera.

The mornings began with our own barista, Jerry Barnard, making us his delicious coffee which was enjoyed by all. No wonder everyone had so much energy to bike and golf. Breakfast consisted of fruit, granola, yogurt and hard boiled eggs. A tutorial was given on the perfect hard boiled egg and Dan Regan gave us a demonstration.

Every mile of the trails was ridden. A group biked to Harmony covering 46 miles while others rode to Fountain and back. Yet others trailered their bikes to Peterson and rode to Houston. Some did a round trip to Peterson. Most everyone enjoyed a stop at the Whalen pie shop for a delicious piece of pie.

Happy Hour in the afternoon provided us with both a delicious spread of appetizers which were brought by everyone and lots of great conversation and fellowship. As always, the best part of the trip was the friendship and fellowship enjoyed by the Ullrs being together.

Ullrs on the trail: Carol T, Dale B, Ken M, Marilyn B, and Pat N

The last What's Cookin' Picnic was hosted by the folks who had a 70th or 80th birthday this year. Shown here are Fran D, Larry M, Joan R, Shelly L, Joyce K, Mary Jane H, Jeff F, Karen H, and Carolyn B

As always in the last 69 years, this ULLR Club needs volunteers to keep it active and alive. Find some way to volunteer this coming year, you will be glad you did!

Mama Mia - by Jan Swanberg

Sixteen lucky Ullrs attended the Mama Mia musical play at Chanhassen Dinner Theaters on a sunny, but cool and windy day. The theater was completely sold out. Thanks to Nancy Keyes' connections, we had great seats at a discounted price. Our ULLR group was one of a number of organizations which was announced at the beginning of the show.

I don't believe any of us were disappointed with the play. Ray H. said, "the play surpassed my expectations." The cast did an excellent job with great dancing (including acrobatic) and singing. The story line was very upbeat as well as humorous, providing many laughs for the audience. A quote from Artistic Director, Michael Brandisi stated the play Mama Mia is a celebration of life – life with its enormous beauty and with a little bit of madness. That was certainly seen and felt by the audience.

The afternoon provided two of Ullrs favorite activities, eating and attending theater.
