The last 2022 What's Cookin' Picnic by Margie Deutsch

In the church kitchen are Ron F. peeling potatoes, Patty F. frying the 2 # of bacon, John S. and Vickie L. slicing the bread from Germany.

Vickie gets the potatoes ready for the oven. The brat grillers are from another year. John V, Bruce W, Tom V and Larry M helped this year.

Margie D. tells the 70 picnic Ullrs that after 11 years of making a German picnic– always with the aid of wonderful helpers– this is her last meal. Even though one of the crockpots of sauerkraut was forgotten at church, the meal was enjoyed by all. Every year it was the best attended picnic. Because of volunteer labor, this German meal was the least expensive meal per serving for the club. Margie was tired but happy to share her German food tradition.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Linda Heintz

Thanks to Jan and Jerry Swanberg for bringing the supplies to this summer's What's Cookin' picnics and to Nancy Kastner for doing it for several years before. Also thanks to Nancy and Craig Navis for bringing the drinks for the past several years.

The first hikes have come and gone. They were all very enjoyable. Usually there is lunch afterwards. It's always a treat to get outside and walk with people you know and enjoy being around. And breaking bread with them afterwards is always great fun (but not mandatory.) Thanks to everybody who volunteers to run the hikes.

The hiking and biking programs are still going strong. We'll keep them going as long as we possibly can. Thanks to all the bikers who run trips.

We still have quite a few skiers even after Covid made everything so difficult. Thanks to Barb Kolbe and Nancy Navis for keeping this program going. Looking forward to X-C skiing and snowshoeing this winter, assuming we get enough snow.

Do any of our members know anything about web sites and could help us decide what to do following JJ's retirement as webmaster?

Lanesboro Trip 2022

The Lanesboro trip was wonderful. Beautiful weather, great company, good food and drinks - what more is needed.

25 Ullrs stayed at the Green Gables Inn in Lanesboro, and 4 Ullrs stayed off site. One evening we had a surprise visit from "Iowa" Jan. It was nice to hear she is doing well. Many of us enjoyed pies at Whalen.

A few Ullrs biked 40 miles RT from Lanesboro to Harmony. Some of the bridges and trails were in need of repair. A few Ullrs did an Amish tour and visited Niagara Cave in Harmony, MN. A few Ullrs saw the play "Leading Ladies" at the Commonwealth Theatre in Lanesboro. We all enjoyed visiting on the patio in the evening where we got to know two new ULLR members, Tee Mudhna and Andrew Heyer.

Thanks to the co-chairs of the trip: Pat Nelson, Sharon Marini and Lois Drontle for your work arranging and leading the trip. A special thanks to everyone who pitched in to serve meals and clean up.

Thanks Ullrs for coming for a few fun days in the Lanesboro area.

This was the first year that Lois D. was a co-leader for the Lanesboro trip. That meant she shared her bedroom with the roaster pan.

Oh-Oh! It is pretty hard to play Limbo when you are on a bike. Looks like Nancy and Sharon did it!

Two Tours on Wednesday, Sept. 28

Tour One: 301 Summit Avenue, St. Paul

Learn about this interesting house on a beautiful boulevard with a house history of bankers, Benedictines, Bach, bratwurst and bier.

Tour Two: Cathedral of St. Paul (just 5 blocks east of 301)

Visiting a cathedral in a European city is a “must-do” on a visitor’s list. Now learn about this beautiful and distinctive Roman Catholic church, the sixth largest cathedral in the United States, right here in St. Paul.

Arrive at 301 Summit Avenue, the home of the Germanic American Institute, by 11:00 AM for a house tour by the (self-named) Haus Historian, Margie Deutsch. Hear about the three entities who have called this house a “home.” The house was first owned by a family of 4, then it became a monastery for 178 nuns, and now is the home for 1,000+ GAI members.

Bring your own lunch. We will eat in the GAI dining room, then walk to the Cathedral for a 1:00 PM guided tour of the church.

When we return to 301 Summit, we will follow the German custom of midafternoon dessert and coffee before we go back home.

RSVP by Sept. 25 to Margie Deutsch, 763-545-5845 [h] or 763-498-9366 [c]; mandmdeutsch@gmail.com

(I need to tell the Cathedral how many are in our group for the tour.)
